

Cook

The primary purpose of the position is to prepare food in accordance with current applicable federal, state and local regulations and to assure that quality food service is provided at all times. Good time management, knowledge of modified diets and texture modification is helpful, lift up to 50 pounds, stand for extended lengths of time, the ability to multi-task, follow directions and dietary guidelines, and adhere to strict governmental regulations. Must be able to pass required criminal record clearance background check.